

Return form

If you have purchased something from Petrebels, you can return it without giving a reason. You can notify us of a return within the notification period of 14 days. You then have a further 14 days to return the item to us. Please note: the costs for the return shipment are borne by the buyer.

You can of course return your item without giving a reason. But of course you can voluntarily give us your reason. We would be very pleased to hear this, as it will help us to improve our products and our service.
